Join EveryChild California's Southern Section for this presentation on the concept and journey of Healing Centered Engagement. We will extend beyond trauma informed practices of care, to collective healing and learning through activism. We will adapt our approaches that include individualistic responses to trauma, to embrace collective strategies of resilience that restore wellbeing. We will answer the questions, how do we shift the paradigm of healing to hold both individual wellbeing and collective community wellbeing?

Guest Speaker: Ruth Beaglehole

Ruth Beaglehole is a consultant, trainer, and parenting expert in both the private and public sectors for over 50 years. She is the founder of Echo Parenting and Education, an organization that instructs parents and teachers to identify and break the cycle of early family violence by teaching them the philosophy of nonviolent child raising.
